BANK ROBBERS, KIDNAPERS FACE LONG TERMS

CROSS, RUSSELL SENTENCED IN WARREN COUNTY

Get 5 to 30 On Kidnaping and 10 to 25 for Robberies

WOMEN WILL GO TO REFORMATORY

Two Men Are Ordered To Serve Their Terms
Consecutively

Sentences of five to 30 years on kidnaping charges and 10 to 25 years on robbery counts were meted out today at Lebanon to two men and two women who confessed the abduction eight days ago of Corporal Parker W. Powell of the state highway patrol.

Common Pleas Judge C. B. Dechant of Warren county ruled that the men, David I. Cross, 29, of Hamilton, Pa., and Coy Russell, 29, of Houston, Tex., should serve their terms consecutively.

Their companions, Norma Hayes, 25, of Ashland, Ky., and Marie Day, 25, of Greenup, Ky., were given concurrent terms. The men, both ex-convicts, had confessed, authorities said, a trail of crime from Nebraska to Pennsylvania, including bank robberies at Columbiana and Sebring.

Cross In Columbiana Holdup

One of the men, Cross, admitted participating in the holdup of the Citizens Savings bank at Columbiana on Dec. 31, 1937, when loot totaling $7,000 was taken. Paul Cross, a brother, who took part in the Columbiana robbery, was killed in a fight with a sheriff at Oberlin, N. D., several months ago.

The pair, just eight days ago, stole up three employees and a customer at the Midland-Buckeye Federal Savings & Loan Co. in Sebring and fled with about $2,700.

Corporal Powell was stripped of his gun and kidnaped in his patrol car later that day when he investigated an accident in which the robbers and their women companions were involved.

Taken To Prison

All four were to be taken to prison at once, the men to the Ohio penitentiary and the women to the state reformatory at Marysville.

Cross was sentenced immediately upon his return here from Wilmington and upon a plea of guilty. The other three were arraigned unexpectedly late yesterday after Prosecutor C. Donald Dilatush reported the presence of several "mysterious" automobiles near the courthouse.

Head Relief Unit

ALLIANCE, Dec. 16.—Safety-Director C. J. Packer will be commander, and D. D. Dunning, vice commander, of the Alliance unit of the American Legion post which will function as an emergency in the event Alliance needs disaster relief.

BRITISH READY FOR TRADE WAR

Lay Groundwork for Battle Against Totalitarian States

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Dec. 16.—Great Britain laid the groundwork today for a trade war—if necessary—against the totalitarian states.

Backed by Prime Minister Chamberlain's new forceful attitude toward Nazi Germany, the export guarantees bill, seen as a possible aid to British exporters in meeting Germany's barter trade system, was given second reading by the house of commons.

The measure would increase from $235,000,000 to $352,000,000 the total export guarantees which the board of trade could grant it. It also contains a provision whereby material assistance could be sent to China.

R. S. Hudson, secretary of the overseas trade department, described the bill as one of the methods "without precedent in our history" which Great Britain might be required to use in fighting "unfair foreign competition."

Members of parliament carefully avoided direct reference to Germany, whose political leaders were warned by Chamberlain yesterday to beware of Britain's financial power in any war.

Townsend to Hold County-Wide Rally

A county-wide Townsend club rally will be held in the study hall of the High school building, Lisbon, Sunday afternoon.

Rev. W. H. Longworth, pastor of the Glensville Congregational church, Cleveland, will be the speaker. Rev. Longworth is not a stranger in this territory. For ten years he was pastor of the Congregational church in Canton. He has appeared before various clubs in Cleveland, central and eastern Ohio and adjoining territory.

The brass sextet, composed of members of the High school band and orchestra, under the leadership of Arthur Wise, supervisor of music in the Lisbon schools, will give a half hour's concert starting at 2:30.

The meeting is open to the public.

$80,000 WPA Payroll Scheduled Dec. 24

Christmas cheer for Columbiana county's some 2,600 WPA workers came today with the announcement by WPA authorities that an $80,000 payroll will be released to the men the day before Christmas.

The pay date has been advanced about five days in order that the Works Progress Administration employees might use their money in the Christmas observance.

It is estimated that 2,650 men will receive their pay Saturday, Dec. 24.

IRVING WHITE IS ACQUITTED IN ARSON CASE

Jury Finds Him Not Guilty
On 3 Counts Of Indictment

DEFENSE CALLS 33 WITNESSES

Disposition of Indictments In Other Cases
Is Awaited

LISBON, Dec. 16.—A verdict acquitting Irving White of Amsterdam, N. Y., of arson charges was returned at 4:30 p. m. Thursday by a common pleas court jury following two and a half hours deliberation.

White was placed on trial Monday, charged with firing the People's Credit Clothing Co. store, East Liverpool, Feb. 3, 1931. He was one of six men originally indicated for that fire as well as a blaze occurring in 1938. The others included Louis Wolfberg, owner of the chain of which the East Liverpool store was a unit; Sidney Wolfberg, the former's son; Earl Milton Arbutnot, former store collector; Irving Brodie, field representative for the company; and Alexander Brown, former manager.

Death Removes Wolfberg

Wolfberg was asphyxiated in the kitchen of his New York city home several weeks ago. Following his death the state nolleed charges against his son, Brodie and Arbutnot, were placed on the stand in White's trial as witnesses for the prosecution.

This morning the arson charge against Brown was nolleed upon the recommendation of Prosecutor Slatoff.

Charges are still pending against the younger Wolfberg, Arbutnot and Irving Brodie.

White was indicted on three counts—firing the building; burning an assortment of garments; and arson with intent to defraud an insurance company. The verdict found him not guilty on all counts.

The state's case was based principally on the testimony of Arbutnot and Brodie. Arbutnot stood on the witness stand that White had asked his help in starting the fire and told how he had aided the defendant in piling up boxes and paper. White, he said, had applied the match starting the fire.

Brodie described a conversation with White in the former's New York apartment. He quoted White as saying: "That dirty—discharged me after all I did for him at that East Liverpool fire." His reference was to Louis Wolfberg, president of the chain.

33 Testify for Defense

The defense placed 33 witnesses on the stand, some of whom testified that Arbutnot's reputation for veracity was bad. Others were introduced as character witnesses for the defendant. White took the stand Wednesday, denying all charges and terming them "ridiculous."

Disposition of the remaining indictments has not been announced. Arbutnot and Brodie are charged with complicity in the 1931 fire and Brown with responsibility for the 1938 fire.

Attorneys John Bauknecht and George Aronson represented White at the trial with Prosecutor Karl Stouffer, Assistant Prosecutor Louis Tobin and Attorney Charles Boyd acting for the state. Attorney Boyd was appointed special prosecutor by Common Pleas Judge W. F. Lones who presided at the hearings.

Book by Georgian Subject of Review

Portrayed with an artistry of expression which made almost visible the scenes and characters, the widely read book, "As I Live and Breathe," was reviewed by Mrs. Guy E. Byers at Thursday's Kiwanis club luncheon in the Memorial building.

It was written by Willie Snow Etridge, a classmate of Mrs. Byers' at a southern university.

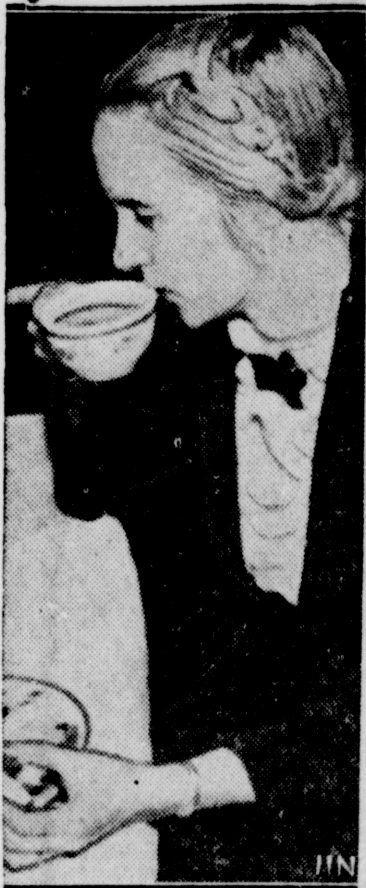

Mrs. Byers, in her review, touched upon various episodes as written by Mrs. Etridge, dealing with all most all of the various types of life which might be found in the typical Georgia city, modes of living and joys and sorrows of its people.

She was presented by Dr. Roy E. Smucker.

Mother on Trial

Mrs. Fern Patricia Dull

Accused of the slaying of William Holbrook, attorney, Mrs. Fern Patricia Dull, 34, mother of two children, is on trial for her life at St. Joseph, Mich. Mrs. Dull, who was Holbrook's secretary and confessed common-law wife, is accused of slaying Holbrook in a jealous rage after he visited his wife and four children in Kalamazoo, Mich. According to a statement police claim from Mrs. Dull, the accused has insisted she was legally married to Holbrook. Police quoted her as saying, "We stopped in front of a church in Kimmel, Ind., one night and spoke the marriage vows. We married ourselves."

AKRON U. COACH GRID SPEAKER

Aiken To Be Guest At Dinner Monday
For Salem High
Football Players

James (Jimmy) Aiken, head football coach at Akron university, will be the speaker at the annual banquet for members of the Salem High school varsity and junior varsity football squads at the Memorial building at 6:30 p. m. Monday.

Aiken, a former Canton McKinley High school coach, will bring motion pictures of several of Akron U's games with him. He may be accompanied by a member of the Akron U. grid squad.

Aiken took over the coaching reins at Akron in 1936 after compiling an outstanding record as a scholastic coach at Canton McKinley. He is the author of a book on scholastic football.

Faculty Manager Frederick E. Cope announced that preparations are being made to serve 99 persons at the banquet.

Deadline Is Drawing Near For Home Lighting Entries

Entries are increasing for the Christmas lighting contest, sponsored by the Junior C. of C. and The Salem News, but the Dec. 20 deadline for filing leaves only a few days for "late comers."

David Rossman, chairman of the contest for the Junior Chamber, appealed today for contestants to hurry with their entries and urged prospects who have been delayed, to fill out the entry blank found on another page in today's News and mail it immediately.

Twelve prizes totaling $100 await the winners. They include: First, an electric mixer, value, $22.75; second, floor lamp, $16.95; third, electric razor, $15; fourth, clock, $8.95; fifth, waffle iron, $7.95; sixth, iron, $6.95; seventh, coffee maker, $5.95; eighth, table lamp, $4; ninth and tenth, clock, $2.95; eleventh and twelfth, toaster, $2.95.

The interest already developed in the contest is indicative of keen competition among not only the veteran home decorators but others whose attention has been drawn to the possibilities of the event—not only in the way of

FDR IS SILENT ON U. S. CABINET REPLACEMENTS

Resignations of Cummings, Roper Leave
Two Vacancies

HARRY HOPKINS' NAME IS HEARD

Many Politicians Believe
Younger New Dealers
Will Be Chosen

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—President Roosevelt said today, amid talk that Harry Hopkins might be the new secretary of commerce that he had not yet made up his mind on cabinet replacements.

Resignations of Attorney General Cummings and Secretary of Commerce Roper have left two vacancies.

Mr. Roosevelt said he could not tell when cabinet appointments or an appointment to the supreme court might be expected.

Holt Has a Word

Senator Holt (D-N. Y.) said in a statement, meanwhile, that if Hopkins, the WPA administrator, were appointed to the cabinet it would not be a promotion but a move to prevent "congressional investigation of his scandalous handling of relief."

In accepting the resignation of the conservative, 71-year-old Roper, President Roosevelt gave no indication of his new choice for the post.

Many politicians, however, expressed belief that he would take advantage of this vacancy and the retirement next month of Atty. Gen. Homer Cummings to create a solid front of younger New Dealers in the cabinet.

There have been rumors for several weeks that still other members of the President's official family might retire or be shifted to other positions. Postmaster General Farley, Secretary of War Woodring and Secretary Swanson of the navy have been mentioned in that connection.

Hopkins Has "Inside" Post

Reports that Hopkins would replace Roper had been current even while the latter was denying he would withdraw. Hopkins has been attending cabinet meetings in his capacity as relief director, and is one of the most regular White House conferees.

If he is appointed, one Democratic senator who asked anonymity declared it would be a "build up" for the 1940 Democratic presidential nomination.

But one of the obstacles he undoubtedly would have to overcome in winning senate confirmation for a cabinet post would be the opposition of various Republican and anti-administration Democratic senators who have disagreed sharply with his methods of administering the WPA.

Curry Will Confine Activity to County

LISBON, Dec. 16.—Charles D. Curry, who has been appointed rural rehabilitation supervisor for Columbiana county, under the farm security administration, will confine his activities to this county, it was announced today.

Curry will be at his office in the courthouse Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday mornings to interview clients and other interested parties. His work will not take him into Mahoning county.

Said Alderman Showed Picture

Enroute, "The Gimp" announced he remarked to Alderman that he understood the pianist had been showing friends a picture of Miss Etting in a bathing suit and saying: "Look at those bedroom eyes... boy, when I tickle the ivory, I make 'em all fall. That's my new honey."

When they reached the house, he testified, they all went into the living room and sat down.

"I said to Ruth," he continued, "I hear you two are married." She said "that's none of your business." Alderman got up from a piano bench and said the same thing with that he pulled a gun. Ruth said get the— I pointed my gun and with that, the lights started to flicker. I shot in the direction of Alderman. Then the lights went out."

Ruth Etting and New Mate

Mr. and Mrs. Myrl Alderman

Returning to Los Angeles from Las Vegas, N. M., where they were married, Ruth Etting, radio singer, and Myrl Alderman, her pianist, kiss for the benefit of the camera. Miss Etting and Alderman flew to Las Vegas in the midst of the trial of Martin Snyder, former husband of the singer, on charges of attempted murder and kidnaping growing out of the shooting of Alderman last October. The newlyweds said they bore no malice toward Snyder.

SNYDER'S TRIAL NEARS CLIMAX

Four Versions of What Happened Presented
To Jurors

(By Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 16.—Martin (The Gimp) Snyder's trial on attempted murder and kidnaping charges moved swiftly toward its conclusion today, with four versions of what happened in the Hollywood hills home of Pianist Myrl Alderman the night of Oct. 15 presented for the jury's consideration.

Snyder is accused of wounding Alderman; of attempting to kill Songstress Ruth Etting, now Alderman's bride, and his own daughter, Edith Snyder; of kidnaping the three of them and of possessing a gun with the numbers defaced. He faces maximum sentences totaling 115 years if convicted.

Tells His Story

The former Chicago newsboy who married the flaxen-haired Miss Etting 18 years ago and guided her climb to theatrical fame, told his story of the shooting yesterday.

It varied in two important essentials from the descriptions furnished by Alderman, Mrs. Etting and Miss Snyder.

They said Alderman was unarmed, and was shot as he opened his mouth to plead with a cursing, revolver-waving Snyder. The defendant testified he reached for his own gun when Alderman produced one and threatened him.

Alderman charged Snyder with forcing him, at gunpoint, to drive to the house. Snyder declared he went along at the pianist's invitation.

Said Alderman Showed Picture

Enroute, "The Gimp" announced he remarked to Alderman that he understood the pianist had been showing friends a picture of Miss Etting in a bathing suit and saying: "Look at those bedroom eyes... boy, when I tickle the ivory, I make 'em all fall. That's my new honey."

When they reached the house, he testified, they all went into the living room and sat down.

LLOYD W. DAY RITES SUNDAY

Father of Salem Man Is Fatally
Injured In Auto-Trolley Accident In Youngstown

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p. m. Sunday in Youngstown for Lloyd W. Day, 71, of 97 Parkgate ave., Youngstown, who died at 3:30 p. m. Thursday in the South Side hospital.

Mr. Day and his wife were injured in an accident Monday night when his car collided head on with a street car. Mr. Day suffered broken ribs, broken arm and other injuries. His wife was not seriously hurt.

A Masonic service will be held at 8 p. m. Saturday at the Orr funeral home in Youngstown and a short service will be conducted at 1:30 Sunday at the funeral home. Burial will be in Goshen cemetery.

The son of Sol and Elizabeth Day, he was born Oct. 21, 1867, in Berlin Center. He was a member of the Masonic lodge of Fresno, S. D., where he formerly lived.

Told of Death

He hurried away but had been gone hardly more than a few minutes before the telephone in Fairfield police headquarters rang again.

Stephen Lasko, an assistant answered.

"It was Bennett," Lasko said. "He told me, 'Coster's dead. He put a revolver to his head and pulled the trigger.'"

Acting U. S. Attorney Gregory F. Noonan disclosed today there was a fourth brother, Robert, who will be arrested in the case. Robert, an employee of McKesson and Robbins, was on his way to New York from New Haven.

Coster-Musica had lived in Fairfield for about ten years, but had taken little part in the town's community affairs. His wife, fellow resident said, centered chiefly on his 123-foot yacht, Carolina.

Prisoner's Attempt At Suicide Halted

LISBON, Dec. 16.—Sheriff Harry Gosney disclosed today that George Fieber, 28, serving a 30-day sentence in the county jail for alleged assault, had attempted to hang himself to a cell bar with his navel.

Fellow prisoners called Chris Fieber, turnkey, who intervened. The prisoner was believed dependent upon action of his wife, Mary Irene, to obtain a divorce.

U. S. HAD ASKED HIS RE-ARREST

Geo. Vernard, Canadian,
Revealed As Another
Agent

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—F. Donald Coster, president of McKesson and Robbins, Inc., whose real identity was disclosed as Philip Musica, an ex-convict who became head of the multi-million dollar corporation, shot and killed himself today at his home in Fairfield, Conn.

The department of justice in Washington, which received first information on the occurrence over its private telegraph wires, first said Coster was "seriously wounded." A Fairfield officer later said the wound was fatal.

Ordered Re-arrest

News that Coster-Musica had taken his own life came shortly after the United States attorney's office here had ordered his re-arrest and that of George E. Dietrich, assistant treasurer, and George Vernard, Canadian agent for the firm, on charges of violating the securities act of 1934.

Back in 1913 when the Musica family was involved in the collapse of their United States Hair company, Philip's father, Antonio, tried to end his life.

Coster-Musica's suicide climaxed a week of dizzy developments, starting when it was discovered that the crude drugs department of McKesson and Robbins, under indirect supervision, apparently had built up fictitious assets of $18,000,000.

GIVE A MAN A LAW HE CAN READ

A Missouri statute revision committee admits an end of patience with wording and punctuation a layman can't understand. This isn't exactly a bombshell but—

Do the members of the committee realize they have lighted a slow-burning fuse leading up to the embarrassment of the legal profession?

If laws weren't concealed in language dating back to the middle ages and punctuated with commas, semi-colons, colons, and asterisks shot from guns by blindfolded men with palsy, a layman would have a fighting chance to find out what they said.

He might even find out what the lawyers and the judges had tortured them into saying wasn't what they really said at all—at least not according to the way English was taught where he went to school. He would be drawn irresistibly to the conclusion that laws are needlessly complicated.

About the same time he'd discover a lot of lawyers feel the same way about it; that they are as confused, too, but hesitate to say so for fear of being criticized for backbiting their own brothers. It would then be just a question of time till a movement got under way to do something about the way laws are cluttered up with confusion.

It was a cinch something good besides the mule would come out of Missouri sooner or later.

MEMEL, MEMEL, WHO HAS MEMEL?

Indications now are that Memel, a territorial wedge driven between Lithuania and East Prussia from the Baltic sea, shortly will belong to Germany. No opposition is foreseen. It isn't a case of seizure. Memel's fate is determined by the law of finders keepers. Cut off from East Prussia by the Treaty of Versailles, it was seized in 1923 by Lithuania. Germany was indignant, but helpless.

The Allies, dealing with an accomplished fact, gave Memel to Lithuania, which now is going to be forced to give it back to Germany. The Lithuanians had nothing to apologize for, however, because in 1920 Poland had seized a chunk of their territory, including Vilna, the capital.

They knew, moreover, that if Germany were to seize the Polish corridor, Poland's outlet to the sea, Poland would have tried to seize Memel. For at least 18 years the occupants of the territory have had to think of themselves as pawns in northeastern Europe's checker game.

Lithuania has tried to suppress the pro-Germans, and the pro-Germans have tried to suppress the Lithuanians. Thanks to streamlined Nazi methods of propaganda, the pro-Germans now are on top for the time being. Memel's the perfect example of what experts mean when they talk about troubled Europe.

A NAME FOR THE YEAR 1938

It's something like cleaning the attic—this annual torture of looking backward over the trends and events of the dying year each December. It's something which has to be done. It's fun. It's instructive. But it takes a lot of time, and it's depressing.

The professional year-end reviewers don't look at it that way at all. To them a year drawing to a close is just one more period of time to analyze. Life would be dull for them if there were no charts to draw, no trends to discern, no high points to recall, no turning points to have been reached, no crises to have been met and passed.

These things are their bread and butter, not to say their life and being. They have a passion for summing up, for gathering up loose ends and knotting them into a solid conclusion, and for peering studiously into the past to foretell the future.

Those who don't enjoy such things have an escape. They don't need to pay any attention to the year-end reviewers. In their own way they can decide simply that the less said about the dying year the better, and then proceed to forget it. In their catalogue of years this will be known as the Year Of The Big Disillusionment. That will be the sum total of all the highly particularized analysis performed by the experts, too.

NOTHING TAKEN FOR GRANTED

Partly concealed, but too plain to be ignored, is the fact the United States delegation at Lima is encountering a point of view different from its own.

Assembly Convenes Jan. 2
The interim budget, being prepared by Finance Director Designate William S. Ewalt will be presented to the incoming legislature soon after Bricker takes office Jan. 9. The 93rd general assembly convenes Jan. 2.

Ericker said that an estimate of relief needs, being prepared by the League of Municipalities would be considered in determining the amount of state relief money to be furnished.

The interim budget customarily carries only sufficient appropriation

Some of the Latin American delegates are openly skeptical about this government's motives.

This difference of opinion, while not new, holds a new meaning for the United States. It is a shock to learn that there are possibilities of deep ideological differences in the western hemisphere. But like many shocks, the ultimate effect should be good.

It cannot possibly hurt citizens of the United States to learn there is nothing to be taken for granted about the desirability of their principles of government, a mistake they committed in the post-war years.

It is plainer today than ever before that freedom and fair dealing are not automatic, but must be re-established endlessly by the power of example in a world whose tendency is to destroy them.

The principal result of the Pan-American conference may be to convince the United States that, having done a poor job of selling its ideals in the past, it must do a better job in the future.

THE STARS SAY:

For Saturday, December 17

THERE ARE indications of a particularly lively and perhaps strenuous day, according to the lunar as well as mutual aspects. Nevertheless, there may be much high pressure activity that is not of a particularly harmonious nature. A tendency to rash, impetuous and irritating conduct may incite enmity, jealousy and opposition. Speculation and new matters may prove gainful if managed with proper restraint.

Those whose birthday it is are on the eve of a year of much activity and enterprise, with much to be gained in speculation, new projects and major interests if they are not put in jeopardy by rash, impetuous and tempestuous conduct. The latter would be sure to excite bitter opposition, strife and jealousy or hatred.

A child born on this day may have fine initiative and the power to put over important projects by its energy, audacity and determination. At the same time, its indomitable will, impetuosity and perhaps quarrelsome nature may invite defeat and un-friendliness.

Nervousness Unquestionably Is Source Of Great Suffering

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

NERVOUS people suffer intensely and are liable to become very much discouraged. They do not often find a physician who satisfies them. It is unfortunate that they cannot find one like the great French physician, DuBois, who described his way of going about the treatment of a man who had been extremely nervous for years:

"All right, then," said the doctor to him, "you may stay with me and Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column."

You will be cured. The directions that you are to follow are these: "1. You are to lie in bed for six weeks. All such sicknesses as yours are more or less related to an actual exhaustion, and from this fact come indications that, at least for a certain time, your output of effort be reduced to the minimum. Besides, your loss of weight makes this complete rest very desirable."

Dyspepsia, too. "2. Since you have suffered from dyspepsia, and this dyspepsia, as I shall at the proper time explain to you, is more mental than physical, during six days you will get a diet exclusively of milk and you need not tell me you can't tolerate milk; milk is always well tolerated."

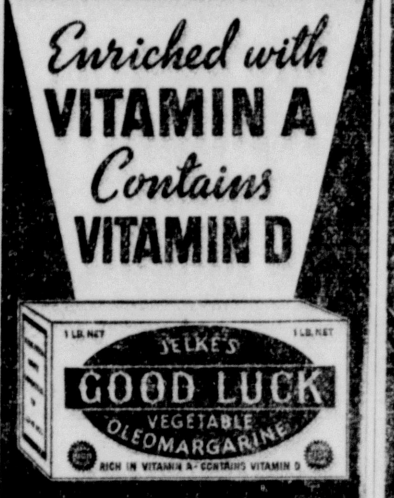

"3. After the seventh day you are to be massaged. This isn't an absolutely necessary measure, but it will improve the circulation in muscles and the skin, which grow sluggish in the absence of exercise. "You are an intelligent man and I will begin to talk to you and try to explain to you the basis of the symptoms which apparently are so puzzling to you. Six obstacles stand in your way, so to speak. You can't read; fur hemorrhoids, you can't eat like other people; your bowels do not move regularly; and, finally, you are unable to get fat. Now all those obstacles can be brushed aside or, to put it better, they have no real existence; they are only in your head."

Three Already Gone
This treatment was followed and at the end of the third week the patient said:

"Doctor, three of the obstacles have already fallen, or, to put it better, they have no longer reality when I find myself confronting them. In the first place, to my great astonishment, I have been able to take milk. I can eat everything, and some of the foods that I formerly regarded as indigestible has hurt me in the least. Under this treatment my bowel movements have become so regular they take place every morning at a definite hour. Lastly, I have gained four pounds every week. The other difficulties remain."

"I understand," answered the doctor. "They are in fact undoubtedly your most serious symptoms."

SEES ADEQUATE FINANCE WITHOUT NEW TAXES

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS Dec. 16.—Adequate relief and school financing in Ohio without tapping additional revenue sources was seen by Gov. East John W. Bricker today as entirely feasible through "proper economies."

"There will be no new taxes or increase in present ones," Bricker asserted in announcing that the temporary general appropriations bill would include allotments for relief next year as well as other possible purposes outside state departments.

Assembly Convenes Jan. 2
The interim budget, being prepared by Finance Director Designate William S. Ewalt will be presented to the incoming legislature soon after Bricker takes office Jan. 9. The 93rd general assembly convenes Jan. 2.

Ericker said that an estimate of relief needs, being prepared by the League of Municipalities would be considered in determining the amount of state relief money to be furnished.

The interim budget customarily carries only sufficient appropriation tions for various governmental operations pending later adoption of the biennial budget measure.

Bricker indicated that the all-inclusive interim budget plan would be followed in drafting the biennial budget along lines advocated at various times by both Democratic and Republican legislative members.

Asserting that he was not pledged to abolition of earmarking various tax sources for specific purposes, Bricker said he had been informed that most states were turning from that system to a policy approximating that of the general revenue fund.

Lends Itself To Economy
Fund plan proponents have held that the system lends itself more readily to governmental economy than earmarking policies.

The governor-elect announced late yesterday appointment of C. W. Wallace of Toledo as state registrar of motor vehicles at a salary of $5,000 annually. Wallace will succeed Frank West.

Whether Bricker will be able to name members to the state unemployment compensation and industrial commissions apparently hinges upon possible senate action Dec. 31 on Gov. Martin L. Davey's recess designations.

Keith Lawrence of Cleveland senate Democratic leader, said he would recall the entire senate on the last day of the year to consider the appointments "if the governor indicates he wants them confirmed."

Otherwise only skeleton sessions of both houses will be held to adjourn the last special session.

Balked Lease Reappointment
The senate, dominated by an anti-Davey bloc of "hatch men," balked confirmation of the reappointment of Charles S. Leasure to the unemployment commission and a successor to Thomas Gregory on the industrial body.

A possible truce between Davey and the hostile senate bloc appeared provided State Treasurer Clarence H. Knisley was designated for the industrial commission post. Knisley will be succeeded Jan. 9 by Don Ebricht of Akron.

Failure of the senate to act on appointments would leave the matter up to Bricker after he takes office.

Columbiana P.T.A. Sponsors Program; Music Is Feature

COLUMBIANA, Dec. 16.—A large audience enjoyed the community and Christmas program of the Parent-Teacher association last night at the school auditorium.

Mrs. Carl Keller presided at the program meeting. Announcement was made that the organization will sponsor a radio talent program next time in January the proceeds of which will be used to help pay for the band uniforms.

The program was in charge of the chairman, Mrs. R. J. Esterly. The orchestra and Glee club under the direction of their instructor, Mr. King, furnished special music. Eleanor and Mildred Cotton sang with a violin duet accompanied by Dorothy Poulton.

Mrs. Charles Coppock told the story of several Christmas carols which were sung by the group led by Mr. King and with orchestra accompaniment. The next meeting will be held Jan. 18 at which time the program will include a demonstration of choral speaking by some of the Fitch school, Austintown, and music by Fitch Mothers' singlets under the direction of Mrs. Walter Knudsen, president of the Mahoning County Parent Teacher association. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of last night's program.

Members of the library board held their monthly meeting at the library Tuesday evening at which time the routine business was transacted and current bills paid. Mrs. Virginia Felger presided. Mrs. R. E. Weaver, librarian, announced that new high had been reached during the past month in the circulation of books. During November 110 books were borrowed, a gain of 16 per cent over the same month last year, when about 130 books were taken out. This was higher than expected due to a double holiday during the month.

True Blue Class Members Enjoy Annual Yule Party

Mrs. James Mounts and Mrs. Harry Snyder were associate hostesses at the Christmas party held by the True Blue class of the Presbyterian church Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. William E. Ward on the Lisbon rd.

Following group singing of Christmas carols by the 24 members present, Mrs. Snyder told the Christmas story, "The Other Wise Man". A gift exchange and informal entertainment concluded the affair. Mrs. A. S. Greenmeyer won the prize in the bingo games.

Members who have food and clothing to donate for the Christmas boxes are asked to leave the articles at the Salem waterworks office anytime before Saturday, Dec. 24.

Mrs. L. S. Richards Is Hostess

Mrs. Richard Stirling and Mrs. David Bevan assisted Mrs. L. S. Richards in entertaining associates of the Baptist Women's Missionary society at a casserole luncheon Thursday afternoon at the Richards home on the Elsworth rd.

The regular meeting of the society opened at 2:30 p. m. in charge of Mrs. C. L. Hartsough, president, who welcomed new members and gave a short talk.

Members sang Christmas carols. A letter of appreciation was read from the Bacon college, in Oklahoma, to which the society sent a box of gifts.

Mrs. F. L. Blevins, program chairman, introduced the program subject, "Covered Bridges" and the day's topic, "India". Christmas quotations were responses to roll call.

Mrs. Ellwood Hammell led the devotional service, reading the Christmas story from the Bible and an article "Christmas to Adults".

A review of Indian village life, customs and religions of the people and a history of the mission work being done there was presented by Mrs. Blevins.

"The Medical Work in India", was discussed by Mrs. George Foltz, who stressed the activities among the lepers of that country.

Mrs. Frank Brudery gave an account of the Indian school system, followed by a discussion of the work of the Preston Institute in India.

Mrs. S. Talmage Magann showed pictures of India and accompanied them with explanatory remarks.

Gifts were exchanged and the afternoon enjoyed informally.

Knickerknack Shower for Miss Benzinger

A knickerknack shower given by Mrs. Arthur H. Vaughan Thursday evening at her home on Highland ave., was another of the series of courtesies for Miss Barbara Benzinger, who will become the bride of Herbert P. Lindsley of Wichita, Kan., on Dec. 31.

Four tables of bridge were in play during the evening, the prizes going to Miss Jean Harwood and Mrs. John Bebout.

Lunch was served at the tables which were attractive with bowls of holly and white mums and red tapers.

Mrs. Leon Colley, who will have a dinner party honoring the bride-elect at her home on South Lincoln ave. Monday night; Miss Carmen McNicol who will entertain Tuesday evening; Mrs. Neil Knowlton, on Friday and Miss Margaret McCulloch on Dec. 27 are among other friends who have planned social affairs for Miss Benzinger.

Classes Will Have Joint Party

The N. E. L. class and the Young Men's Bible class of the First Friends church will have a joint Christmas party at 7:30 tonight at the home of Miss Dorothea Allen on the Goshen rd. All members of the two groups are invited to attend.

Marriage Licenses

Marriage licenses have been issued at Lisbon to Crestus A. Marteney of Bayard, laborer, and Nellie Byers, R. D., Alliance, Stansbury of East Liverpool, WPA worker, and Nellie Hayes of Wellsville; Lawrence A. Brewer, driller, and Juanita G. Whitney, East Liverpool.

Missionary Circle Names Officers

New officers were elected at a meeting of the Esther H. Butler Missionary circle of the Friends church at the home of Mrs. Orin T. Kerns, East Third st., Thursday afternoon.

Officers include: President, Mrs. L. L. Park; vice president, Mrs. Charles Lantz; secretary, Mrs. Charles O'Connell; assistant, Mrs. Harrison Kuhns; treasurer, Mrs. Harry Parsons.

Mrs. Mary Myers was in charge of the devotional service.

The program, arranged by Mrs. John Shaffer, opened with group singing of Christmas carols.

Several interesting articles were read as follows: "China Strives to Save Her Youth", Mrs. Roy Her; "A Christmas Thought", Mrs. Scott Herbert; "Christian Gustusti from Chicago", Mrs. Shaffer.

Gifts were exchanged by the members who also brought gifts for a Christmas box which will be sent to the church mission in Virginia.

Mrs. L. S. Baker, associate hostess, and Mrs. Kerns served lunch and a social hour was enjoyed.

McCulloch Employes Enjoy Dinner

Employes of the R. S. McCulloch store enjoyed a dinner and Christmas party last evening at the Willow Grove grange hall.

Tables, arranged in a U-shape, were attractive with center decorations of holly and red tapers.

A Santa Claus distributed gifts during the evening and bingo, a quiz contest and a spelling bee provided entertainment.

Kings Heralds Society Plans Program

The Kings Heralds Missionary society of the Methodist church will have a Christmas program at the home of Miss Joan Combs, 832 East Fifth st., at 2:30 p. m. Saturday.

Members are asked to bring a small gift for the gift box.

Lydia Bible Class Meets Monday

The Lydia Bible class of Holy Trinity English Lutheran church will meet at the home of Mrs. Harry Izenour on South Union ave., at 8 p. m. Monday.

An attractive holiday program has been arranged by the committee. Gifts will be exchanged.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wilson will leave Saturday for St. Petersburg, Fla., to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Capel and daughter, Hazel, who are visiting there.

Homemakers Meet at Baunach Home

Vernal Grove Homemakers club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Nelson Baunach on the Newgarden rd.

Readings, music and a Christmas gift exchange were enjoyed. Members chose new "secret pals" for next year. Lunch was served with holiday appointments.

The next meeting will be held Jan. 11 at the home of Mrs. Marion Bowers, near Salem.

Music Study Club

The Christmas party for Salem Music Study club members, postponed from last week, will be held Monday at the home of Mrs. E. T. Coyle, Columbiana.

The program will feature "Music of the World" and a "Pageant of Shaws". Mrs. Virginia Felger is chairman of the entertainment committee.

Mrs. R. B. Kernohan and Mrs. Louis Schilling left Monday night for a trip to England where they will spend the next few weeks with the latter's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Gruver at Mornmouthshire, England. Mrs. Gruver was formerly Miss Ray Schilling of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Clyde McKee are spending a short time in Denton, Tex.

Fights Deportation

Mrs. Annie Reilly (above), 58-year-old mother of five American citizens, is pictured in a Utica, N. Y., court, where she is fighting her sixth deportation to Montreal, Canada. She is charged this time with illegal entry into the United States. Mrs. Reilly came to the United States 25 years ago.

WASHINGTONVILLE

Busy Bees of the Methodist church held their annual Christmas party in the home of Miss Myrtle Baker recently with 21 present. A chicken dinner was served. A business session was held in charge of the president, Mrs. Mark Klingensmith. Contests and a spelling bee were enjoyed. A gift exchange was a feature.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Sam Atkinson of Salem, Mrs. Albert Cox and Mrs. Helen Archer of Leetonia. In January the society will be entertained by Mrs. Edward Girard and Mrs. Charles Geiger.

At a meeting of the congregation of Trinity Lutheran church the following officers were elected: Deacon, F. I. Bilger; trustee for three years, Homer Heintzelman; pianist, Mrs. L. J. Davis; assistant pianist, Mrs. Carl Weikart; chorister, Mrs. Joe Candler; benevolence treasurer, John Candler.

Pythians Convene

Pride of the Valley Temple No. 400, Pythian Sisters, held its regular meeting Tuesday evening when the report of the district convention, held at Struthers, was given by Mrs. Russell Smith.

Officers were elected as follows: Past chief, Mildred Davis; most excellent chief, Wilma Smith; excellent junior, Iris DeJane; excellent junior, Elta Grim; manager, Ethel Jackson; mistress of records and correspondence, Helen Santulla; mistress of finance, Esther Stouffer. Protector, Emma Wisler; guard, Elva Culler; trustee, Muriel Girard; mistress of work, Rebekah Weikart; captain of degree staff, Fern Riddle; pianist, Catherine Cutchall; press correspondent, Wilma Smith; delegate to grand lodge, Fern Riddle.

At the next meeting in two weeks, a New Year's party and a grab bag will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Hileman and daughter, Nancy, of Cleveland were Sunday visitors in the homes of David and J. C. Weikart.

Theatre Attractions

Surrounded by a topflight cast of dramatic and comedy favorites, Gene Autry and Smiley Burnette enact their newest singing western drama against a rodeo background. The film is titled "Rhythm of the Saddle" and shows tonight and Saturday at the Grand theater.

Battle Over Franchise

Autry is a foreman for pretty Peggy Moran and seeks to protect her interests when rival ranchers attempt to wrest a rodeo franchise away from her Silver Saddle ranch. There are hand-to-hand action, thrills, rodeo stunts that have the audience gasping for breath, furious rides, and, naturally, several songs from the inimitable Gene and Smiley.

Capable in supporting roles are Leroy Mason and Arthur Loft, as chief villains, and Ethan Laidlaw, Walter de Palma, Eddie Hart, and Eddie Acuff.

Lone Ranger On Screen

For the past four years "The Lone Ranger" has been one of the most widely listened-to radio programs in the country. The shrill cry of "Heigh-ho, Silver" is familiar to millions of listeners, young and old, all over the United States. The dashing and mysterious "Lone Ranger" has become practically a member of households through his nightly visits by way of the radio.

Now, he is coming to the screen! Republic Studios are starring him in an exciting serial—"The Lone Ranger"—the first chapter of which will open Friday at the Grand theater.

Just as his identity has been kept unknown on the air, so will it be on the screen. Always masked, the star of this remarkable serial will be known only as "The Lone Ranger." His features will not be shown until the final chapter.

The story of "The Lone Ranger" is laid during the reclamation of Texas immediately following the Civil war, and is said to be excellent screen-fare for the entire family.

At the State Saturday is a comedy "Up the River" featuring Preston Foster, Phyllis Brooks, Tony Martin, Slim Summerville and Arthur Treacher.

Concluding tonight at the State is the gay comedy, "There Goes My Heart," which gives romantic leads to Virginia Bruce and Frederic March and comedy leads to Patsy Kelly and Alan Mowbray.

WEST PLAINS, Mo. — When a justice of the peace fined him $1 and costs and sentenced him to six months at the county farm on a charge of stealing 56 rabbits, Jeff Wray replied, "It's just what I expected, and I think it will be good for me."

LONDON—Because they considered a baby was "breaking up the home" a young London couple abandoned the child while on a holiday, but they kept a pet cat.

Notaries Public
Examiners Named

LISBON, Dec. 16.—Attorneys W. Edmund Peters, Salem, and George Jaffery, Lisbon, were appointed notary public examiners for the county Thursday by Common Pleas Judge W. F. Lones to serve without compensation.

The appointees will examine all applicants to determine their fitness for the post, making their recommendations to Judge Lones. The order specifies that notices of examination shall be posted in the clerk of courts office two weeks before the quiz and published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county.

Applicants who previously passed notary examinations may be exempted, the entry specifies. Change in examiners is made periodically by Judge Lones.

Four Are Paroled

Four men sentenced to the Mansfield reformatory from Columbiana county were granted paroles today. They include Charles and Lawrence Soles, convicted of automobile theft, parole effective March 1, to go to Pennsylvania; Johnny Craig, burglary, to be paroled Feb. 1, and Juddy House, burglary, paroled Feb. 1.

DEATHS

ALVA D. WOOLMAN

Alva D. Woolman, aged about 73, died of pneumonia Thursday at his home in Bellflower, Calif., according to word received by Salem relatives.

Mr. Woolman was born near Beloit and for several years was in the grocery business in Alliance. More than 25 years ago he went to Greeley, Colo., and later to Long Beach, Calif., having engaged in the same business in both cities. For the last few years he and Mrs. Woolman had resided in Bellflower.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Sarah Tomlinson Woolman, and one sister, Mrs. George Barber, of near Beloit. Mrs. Woolman is a sister of L. Tomlinson and Mrs. W. A. Hawley of this city.

Funeral service and burial will be conducted Saturday in Long Beach, Calif.

Bargain Coin Sale
Starts Police Hunt

A Columbiana county man who sold rare coins worth $4 each, for 50 cents, is the object of an investigation being conducted today by Sheriff Harry Gosney and Sharon, Pa., police.

The salesman gave a Lisbon rural route as his address. The coins were said to be California gold half dollars valued by collectors at several times their face value. Ten of them were sold to Sharon residents before a suspicious buyer notified police.

Pennsylvania authorities asked Sheriff Gosney to investigate, believing the coins might have been stolen.

But Why?

MIAMI, Okla.—Wrote Miami's county jail prisoners:

"Time is important to us and we can't tell the time from the new chimes just installed in the lock at the bank."

Cashier Noel Wyatt obligingly sent them a complete set of instructions on how to decipher the quarter-hour and hourly chimes.

Edens Captivate Capital Folk

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Eden in Washington

Handsome Anthony Eden, former British foreign secretary, and his attractive wife, shown at a Washington rail station, captivated capital folk during their day's visit, which included a call at the White House and a tour of Washington's home at Mount Vernon, Va.

Surprised Hero

CENTRALIA, Wash. — B. H. Rhodes is puzzled how Uncle Sam learned about it after all these years.

He's just received a medal for "gallantry in action against insurgent forces in the Philippine islands, Feb. 5, 1899."

Attorney Rhodes, then a first sergeant, recalled that he led his men, trapped by Filipinos, out of a swamp and routed the enemy.

Yuletide Spirit

PADUCAH, Ky.—The thief who stole $20 from Lonnie Williams, blind cigar stand operator, is forgiven.

Williams had saved the money for a Christmas trip to Frankfort, Ky. C. K. Lovejoy, hotel manager, heard of the theft and sent him $25.

"I wish whoever got the twenty bucks a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year," said Williams, smiling.

Use O.N.G. Trucks

ALLIANCE, Dec. 16.—Trucks of Battery C 135th field artillery, were pressed into service today to help the four regular postoffice trucks deliver Christmas mail.

Crawford to Head
Paralysis League

Atty S. W. Crawford of East Liverpool has been appointed chairman of the Columbiana County Infantile Paralysis League, sponsoring President Roosevelt's Birthday ball on Jan. 30, the president's natal day.

Dances are being planned for Salem and East Liverpool and possibly Wellsville. Proceeds will be devoted to curbing the spread of the disease in the county and state. Ralph Mullin, blind relief director for the county, is secretary under Attorney Crawford.

A meeting was held Thursday evening in Atty Crawford's office at East Liverpool to complete plans. Several committees were named at this time.

Faces Coal Charge

PORTSMOUTH, Dec. 16.—Albert Akers, operator of a coal mine in Scioto county, will be given a hearing Jan. 10 on charges that he refused to comply with the Federal Coal Act and refused to pay the assessment tax for non-compliance. Akers was arrested yesterday and James M. Cleveland, assistant U. S. attorney in Cincinnati, said this was the first prosecution in Ohio under the act.

Here and There About Town

Collisions Reported

Automobiles driven by Mrs. Clifford Zimmerman of 775 Superior ave. and Michael Yakubek 665 Prospect st., tangled at the intersection of N. Lincoln ave. and Fifth st. at 7:45 p. m. Thursday, police said. Joseph Birkheimer of Franklin st. told police yesterday his car, parked in front of the Eagles' home, E. State st., was hit by another machine. Someone also stole a hunting jacket from the car.

A truck operated by J. A. Sibert, R. D. 5, Salem, and John Solmer, R. D. 1, Leetonia, figured in a minor accident on E. Pershing st. at 4:15 p. m. yesterday.

In Mt. Union Program

Misses Dorothy McConner and Emma Jane Lewis, members of Alpha Xi Delta sorority at Mount Union college, appeared in a Christmas pageant presented by the sorority at the college Wednesday evening. Miss Lewis was a member of the choir for which Miss McConner acted as pianist. The pageant, "Christmas Story" was written by two college students.

"Baby Leo" On Radio

"Baby Leo" Copacia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Copacia of South Ellsworth ave., will perform on his drums in the finals of a talent contest which will be broadcast over radio station WKBN in Youngstown at 10 a. m. Saturday. "Baby Leo" was a winner in one of the elimination events of the contest.

On College Program

Miss Ruth Wright of 781 South Lincoln ave., appeared as a soloist in the annual candlelight carol service presented at Penn Hall junior college in Chambersburg, Pa., last week. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hermon L. Wright.

Building Permit

John Filler, as contractor, applied to the city yesterday for a building permit for the remodeling of a storeroom at 264 E. State st. where the Canton Hardware Co. will open a store in the near future.

Hospital Notes

Anna Margaret Hammond of Columbiana has entered Salem City hospital for surgical treatment. Martha Griner of 1738 East State st., had her tonsils removed today at Salem City hospital.

Warren Will Push Slum Elimination

WARREN, Dec. 16.—The grant of $990,000 of federal funds for slum elimination in Warren will be supplemented by $10,000 to be raised here by sale of first mortgage bonds, under a plan to construct 28 apartments, each to house eight families, a total of 224.

Plans for the project were approved months ago but the sites have not been selected by the Warren Metropolitan Housing Authority.

Held for Begging

CLEVELAND, Dec. 16.—Maurice Lopez, 52, president of the American Mission Workers, today was under sentence to 30 days in the workhouse following conviction on charges of being a common beggar. Municipal Judge Joseph N. Ackerman denounced him for operating a "racket" and suspended sentence for seven members of the mission, including four women, who pleaded guilty.

They were arrested at street corners when they were found ringing bells and standing near red and white chimneys into which pedestrians dropped coins.

Dies In Wellsville

WELLSVILLE, Dec. 16.—Mrs. Jean A. Evans, 38, active in Republican politics for several years, died today. Her husband, Elmer J. Evans, and two daughters survive.

Plunges to Death

WYANDOTTE, Mich., Dec. 16.—Roy Lundy of Upper Sandusky, O., was killed in a 5-foot fall from a smokestack at Trenton, near here, yesterday.

WPA Worker Killed

COLUMBUS, Dec. 16.—Whitfield Rowan, 64, WPA worker, was killed last night in an auto crash near suburban Worthington.

QUAKERS EDGE LISBON, 28-24, IN CAGE OPENER

Brown Quint Has Trouble With County Seat Cagers In First Game Of Season

Quakers Trail Throughout First and Most of Second Quarters; Sutter Shows Up Well In Initial Game In Varsity Lineup

That Coach Herb Brown has a job ahead of him polishing his Salem High school basketball team before it hits the tough part of its 1938-39 season was evidenced last night as the Quakers squeezed out a 28 to 24 victory over Lisbon before a packed house in Lisbon High's new gymnasium.

It was the opening engagement of a 16-game campaign for the Quakers and the Brownmen were far from impressive in nosing out a team which was walloped two weeks ago by Youngstown Woodrow Wilson, 51 to 18, and lost to East Liverpool, 26 to 16, last week.

Proof that the Quakers had plenty of trouble with their county cousins can be seen in the fact that they trailed throughout the first and most of the second quarters, and not until the final period were they able to gain a safe lead.

The Quakers outscored Lisbon in three of the four periods, but not by a heavy majority of points. They made seven points to Lisbon's three in the second frame, seven to Lisbon's six in the third quarter and 10 to Lisbon's nine in the final period.

Lisbon took the lead shortly after the start of the contest and continued to hold an advantage throughout the first period although the Quakers managed to tie the count twice. At the end of the first quarter, Lisbon led 6 to 4.

Late in the second quarter, the Quakers collected a pair of field goals to tie the score at 9-9 after Lisbon had gained a four-point lead, 9 to 5. Conversion of two free throws near the end of the second period enabled the Quakers to hold the lead, 11 to 9, at halftime.

The county seat quintet played on practically even terms with the Red and Black lads in the third quarter which ended with the Quakers on the long end of an 18 to 15 count. Salem made one field goal and five fouls in this period while Lisbon chalked up two field goals and a like number of free throws.

The Quakers ran their lead up to four points at the start of the fourth quarter and continued to press their advantage until late in this period. Salem led 28 to 21 near the close of the final frame when Lisbon staged a mild rally to collect three points and cut the Quakers edge to 28 to 24.

Coach Howard Ziemke has developed one of the best Lisbon court teams in recent years and the county seat quintet has undoubtedly improved considerably since it started its season, but this offers little consolation to the Quakers.

The one bright spot in the picture was the showing of Burton Sutter and Glen Duncan, graduates of last season's reserve team, who were making their first start as regulars with the varsity.

The two newcomers to the first string team displayed real class and indicated that Brown has not gone wrong in selecting them for varsity positions. Both lads showed plenty of scrap and worked in well with the various combinations Brown used in the game.

Sutter is unquestionably the most improved player to hit the Quakers' varsity in several years and looked just as good if not better, than any player on the brightly-polished Lisbon floor.

Amos Dunlap provided the spark which sent the Quakers off to the victory, but Dunlap tired after only a small amount of action. Sutter played spirited and inspired ball throughout the game and led the Quakers in scoring with 10 points.

The two veterans of the varsity lineup, Bill Schaeffer and Jim Dickey, failed to play an important part in the Quakers' triumph. Schaeffer apparently has not recovered from the effects of a bruising football campaign, while Dickey appeared to be lost with the new combination.

Schaeffer was ousted from the game early in the third quarter for committing too many fouls. Dickey was removed from the contest twice by Brown for poor ball-handling and erratic free work.

Neither team was able to set up scoring plays consistently or work with ease under the baskets. As a result the majority of field goals were made on shots from side court or near the foul zone.

Fouls figured prominently in the scoring. Salem made 12 free throws out of 17 chances, while Lisbon converted 10 of 16 foul shots. Frequent fouling by members of both teams slowed down the action considerably.

The Quakers made only two field goals in the first half, the remainder of their points coming from free throws. They collected six field goals in the second half.

The Quaker reserves showed more promise than the varsity in romping to a 21 to 13 victory over Lisbon reserves in a preliminary game.

The Salem secondaries pulled far out in front in the second half of their contest after battling on even terms with the Lisbon subs in the first half.

Bob Shoe and Mike Thomas led the Quaker reserves in scoring. Shoe collected seven points and Thomas six.

Great Lakes Gridiron Loop

Is Forming Behind Scenes

BY FRITZ HOWELL

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Dec. 16.—Ohio sports facts and fancies:

A year ago, with the Buckeye and Ohio conferences functioning smoothly, attempts to form a "Great Lakes" league among Ohio colleges fell through, despite years of publicity on the proposed circuit.

Now, with the Buckeye disbanded, and the Ohio loop facing its determined demand that championships in football and basketball be decided officially, talk of a new alignment of teams has been almost nil, although the opportunity is wide open.

But don't let the silence fool you. Behind the scenes the Great Lakes loop is taking shape, but the powers that be aren't making the "too much talk" mistake of last season.

It wouldn't surprise anyone to see a new league made up of three members of the defunct Buckeye, three of Ohio loop, and a couple of unaffiliated schools emerge in time for the 1940 campaign.

Marshall, Xavier and Dayton are the probabilities from the Buckeye. Ohio conference teams which probably would entertain a bid are Toledo, Kent State and John Carroll. Unattached Akron, booted from the Ohio loop two years ago, is one of the unattached possibilities, with the other coming from Michigan.

Dr. Clarence Spears, Toledo's athletic director, said after the Buckeye Breakup that the Rockets would not be interested in a new loop including some of the schools from that circuit, but the belief is he wouldn't hesitate to drop from the Ohio league on the slightest provocation.

When asked about Toledo's reaction to a new conference, Spears answered: "What would we want with a new one? We've hardly used the one we have now."

Since then, however, the Toledo athletic board has ordered Spears to book some "tougher" football foes for 1939. He could find plenty of tough opposition in the above setup, for three teams that beat the Rockets, and the one that tied 'em, are included.

If Western Reserve could be substituted for the Michigan school in the proposed league, a tougher cetet couldn't be found around the Buckeye realm, but the mighty Red Cats insist they aren't interested in any conference affiliations.

The schools in the possible league have many mutual problems. Xavier, Dayton and John Carroll are Catholic colleges, making for natural rivalry on that score. Akron and Toledo are city colleges, and Kent is a state institution, putting them about on a par. And Marshall, after objecting to small gate receipts at three of the Buckeye points—Ohio Wesleyan, Ohio university and Miami—could find no such fault with the proposed plan, for all except Kent are located in large cities.

And on top of all that, all seven Ohio schools have top-flight football teams and canny coaches year after year. Yep, it looks like a natural, even if it hasn't come to the surface yet.

LOUIS DEFENSE, AND ARMSTRONG TOP RING SHOW

Boxing Grossed Two Million In N. York; Mike Jacobs Is Ruler

By PAT ROBINSON
NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The passing year may have left something to be desired from an artistic viewpoint in prize ring circles but financially it was a huge success. Fight gates in New York grossed more than $2,000,000 and it is conservatively estimated that fight fans of the nation spent more than $5,000,000 to see their favorite sport.

Max Schmeling and Joe Louis drew a near-million dollar gate for their heavyweight title bout that lasted less than a round. This was the banner shot of the year. No other fight approached it but there were several that ran into what the boys along Broadway call "big money."

Promoter Mike Jacobs, who definitely established himself as ruler of fistiana during the year, had some good shots in Madison Square Garden. Among these were the Louis-Mann battle which drew $110,000; the Henry Armstrong-Lou Ambers fight for the lightweight title which grossed $104,000; the Jim Braddock-Tommy Farr shot worth $83,000; the Henry Armstrong-Celestino Garcia welterweight title bout which drew $79,000 and the Tommy Farr-Max Baer title which lured $74,000 worth of trade through the turnstiles.

Henry Armstrong was the sensation of the year. After winning the featherweight title from Pecky Sarron late in 1937, the title chocolate colored battler added the lightweight and welterweight crowns to his laurels and thus became the first man in the history of the ring to be champion of three divisions at the same time. He voluntarily relinquished the featherweight title later.

He was a life-saver to the game which produced few new faces to add interest to the warfare. In fact, promoters are hard-pressed to find worthwhile cards, so great is the shortage of classy fighters. Take a look at the situation as the year draws to a close. Joe Louis, the heavyweight champion, is a worthy successor to other great fighters who have had the title, but there are his challengers. There isn't one worthy of a title shot. Max Baer still gets cold chills every time Louis' name is mentioned. Tommy Farr has the heart but not the punch. Tony Galento is more down than fighter. And the others are a dime a dozen.

The light heavyweight title is contested. The National Boxing Association still recognizes John Henry Lewis, although he has been partially outgrown the class. The New York commission has declared the title vacant and is staging an elimination series.

The best middleweight fighter in the world is Fred Apostoli but he is recognized as champion only in New York and California. National Boxing Association recognizes Sol Krieger, who whipped Al Hostak who knocked out Fred Steele. Apostoli has already knocked out both Steele and Krieger.

Armstrong lifted the lightweight crown from Lou Ambers in a close contest, won the welterweight title from Barney Rens with ease, and defended the latter successfully against Celestino Garcia and all Manfredo.

The featherweight situation is muddled. The N. B. A. recognizes as champion Leo Rodak who beat Fred Miller; the N. Y. commission recognizes Joey Archibald who beat Mike Bellise after Armstrongs gave up the crown. A battle between Rodak and Archibald would clear up the situation but would hardly produce a great champion.

* Escobar regained his bantamweight title by beating Harry Jelfra in Escobar's native Puerto Rico and has since spent much of his time getting licked in non-title fights.

Nobody pays any attention to the flyweights although little Dado generally is recognized as champion.

GULDAHL BEST GOLFER OF '38

Beat Back Strong Field To Win National Open For Second Time

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Big, strapping, shaggy-haired Ralph Gulda was by all odds the outstanding golfer of 1938 and, moreover, in clinching that honor for himself he moved among the elite time select by accomplishing two feats that rank very close to links miracles. He beat back the field to capture the National Open championship with a 284 for the second successive year and took the Western Open for the third straight time for a record of consistency in top flight competition that stands among the game's most brilliant achievements.

With that he fairly towered above the rest of the field of club-swingers, which included in its midst such notables as Sammy Snead, the sweet swinger from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., who established a new money-winning record that aggregated nearly $18,000—all from competitive purses. Snead, enroute to his modest fortune, took the Canadian Open, the Westchester 108-hole event and was runnerup in the National P. G. A. championship.

In the latter event, he and his tremendous tee shots finished second to the accurate short game of little Paul Runyan, who won going away by 8 and 7. Among the amateurs, the top flight performers were Charlie Yates, who reestablished the British golf capital at Atlanta by winning the British amateur, and Willie Turnesa, who trounced Pat Abbott in the U. S. amateur finals. Turnesa's performance was the more impressive because of the fact that he required only 29 holes of a scheduled 36 to win the final, and was only one over par for the distance on the tough Oakmont, Pa., course. John Burke of Georgetown won the intercollegiate title and Al Leach of Cleveland the public links crown.

Ted Adams took the Canadian amateur to earn a share of the year's spotlight, while internationally, the United States suffered by losing the Walker Cup to England for the first time. The Curtis Cup was retained by the U. S. women over the British. The women's field was dominated by freckled 20-year-old Patty Berg, Minneapolis miss who won 10 of 13 tournaments, including the women's national. In the latter she eliminated Mrs. Estelle Lawson

Page the defending champion with a burst of sub-par golf. The year was a banner one in every respect, and produced at least one innovation—the holding of the open at Denver, the farthest west the event has ever gone.

TECH VICTORY LEADS UPSETS

Carnegie's Win Over Pitt Furnished Biggest Surprise of Year

BY HERBERT W. BARKER

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—Carnegie Tech's football victory over Pittsburgh was ranked officially as the No. 1 upset of the 1938 sports season by the 70 sports experts participating in the Associated Press' eighth annual poll today, but analysis of the returns reveal that the outcome of the heated National league pennant race actually was the biggest surprise.

This apparent paradox was brought about by the fact that the sports critics who mentioned the National league race approached it from two directions. One group suggested that the Chicago Cubs' fast finish was the biggest surprise. Another took the position that it was the collapse of the Pittsburgh Pirates which was most astonishing.

With points awarded on a 3-2-1 basis as each expert made three nominations to the "upset" list, Carnegie Tech's 20-10 triumph over Pitt was given a total of 55 points to top the list. Thirty-one points went to the Cubs for their pennant victory and 25 to the Pirates for their collapse. Combining the Cubs and Pirates' points would produce a total of 56 points, one point more than was credited to Carnegie Tech.

All told 54 surprises were mentioned in the balloting, with football contributing 19 and baseball 12. Boxing and golf followed with six each.

The results: Surprise 1. Carnegie football victory over Pitt; 2. Louis' quick K. O. of Schmeling; 3. Chicago Cubs' pennant victory; 4. Seabiscuit's victory over War Admiral; 5. Cincinnati Reds' collapse; 6. Pittsburgh Pirates' collapse; 7. Chicago Black Hawks' Stanley cup hockey victory; 8. Johnny Vander Meer's successive no-hit, no-run games; 9. Navy's Poughkeepsie victory; 10. S. Calif. football victory over Notre Dame; 11. Al Hostak's defeat by Solly Krieger; 12. Gene Mako's fine showing in U. S. singles tennis championship and Ralph Guldahl's repeat victory in open golf.

Columbiana Cagers To Meet Boardman In League Opener

COLUMBIANA, Dec. 17.—The Columbiana High school basketball team opens its home season and the Tri-County league season tonight when Coach Lowell Allen's Boardman High aggregation invades the local gym.

The Red and White varsity will be out for the third victory of the season, while the reserves will try for their second win. Last year at the Boardman gym, Columbiana was defeated 25-35. Coach Al Beach's charges completely outclassed Mineral Ridge Tuesday night at the Ridge, 52-23. The score would have been much larger had not coach Beach made numerous substitutions, using his entire squad. Every man scored at least two points. Dewalt leading with 10.

The reserves also gained an easy win 27-19 in which dozens of easy shots were missed by both teams. Follenkopf starred with 15 points.

4 Special Matches Booked at Grate's

The Glidden Paint ladies bowling team of Salem will meet a Steubenville ladies team in one of four special matches scheduled for the Grate Recreation alleys at 8 p. m. Saturday.

The Glidden five boasts several of the city's leading women kelpers and ranks as one of the best feminine bowling teams in the district.

Other matches will send the Washingtonville Odd Fellows against a Steubenville men's team, Loudon V-8's of the Pastime league against Melssner's Service Station of the Federal league and the Grate Recreation road team against an Alliance five.

Threatened F. D. R?

Benjamin S. Kitchener

Arrested as a vagrant at Tucson, Ariz., Benjamin S. Kitchener, 59-year-old German war veteran and United States army ex-service man, is being held for investigation in connection with the sending of a letter threatening to "throw sulphuric acid" in the eyes of President Roosevelt. Handwriting in the letter resembled that of Kitchener's, according to federal investigators.

Motors To Play Sebring Tonight

The Althouse Motors of the city Class A basketball league will try their luck in a non-league engagement tonight, meeting the Limoges China quintet of Sebring at the Memorial building gym. The game is scheduled to start at 8:30.

Among the Sebring team's leading stars are Ted Schwartzhoff of Damascus, Hutson and Gray of Alliance and Wall Applegate and Snyder of Sebring.

The Motors squad includes Bob and Ed Jeffries, Sam Drakulich, Gordy Scullion, Earl Zelle, John Trombitas, Bob Chappel and Fritz Brantisch.

 OAK, Cal.—Tony Ericson knows how to bring 'em back alive when it comes to coyotes. Unable to run one down with his car because the animal kept too close to a fence, he turned his headlights on so that it would be blinded by the glare, jumped out of the car, picked the coyote up by the tail, while keeping his foot on its head, took off his belt and fastened it around the coyote's neck and led it to the county clerk's office to collect $2.50 bounty.
